The question: How can we best prepare students for lifelong learning while addressing content for standardized tests?

In your blog posts, please address the following topics. For each topic, write 3-5 sentences:

- What did you do this week to address the problem?
- What worked well as you worked on addressing the problem?
- What issues are you experiencing in addressing the Problem?
- How do you feel about your individual progress in addressing the Problem?
- What do you need to be successful in addressing the Problem?
- What additional questions, comments, or concerns do you have?
